

Record in the Commens Bibliography. Retrieved from <http://www.commens.org/bibliography/manuscript/peirce-charles-s-nd-our-senses-reasoning-machines-ms-r-1101>, 04.04.2025.

---

Type: Manuscript
Author: Peirce, Charles Sanders
Title: Our Senses as Reasoning Machines
Manuscript Id: MS [R] 1101
Year: nd

Abstract / From the Robin Catalogue:

Description: A. MS., n.p., n.d., pp. 1-5, incomplete, with 7 pp. of fragments and some logical and mathematical notes on versos of some of these pages. Instinct and reasoning. Can machines be said to reason? CSP replies that they can't; they proceed only by a rule of thumb. Quasi-inferential processes of sense.

Published NEM 3:1114-1115.

Language: English