

Convention [in Logic]

1904 | Sketch of Dichotomic Mathematics | NEM 4:287

A Convention would be a proposition concerning a subject which we imagine to exist as an aid in drawing conclusions concerning our main subject; and any such proposition would be a Convention.