

Predication

1902 | Predication | CP 2.359

In logic: the joining of a predicate to a subject of a proposition so as to increase the logical breadth without diminishing the logical depth.