Category: Academic Meeting

Title: Context, Cognition and Communication Conference

Description: The purpose of the conference is to provide a platform for philosophers, linguists and cognitive scientists for discussing issues connected with the phenomenon of context dependence, the theory of concepts, the theory of abstract objects as well as the connections between the three areas. We encourage submissions addressing "large-scale" as well as "smaller-scale" foundational philosophical issues.

Place: Institute of Philosophy, University of Warsaw
