Category: Project

Title: Idealism & Pragmatism: Convergence or Contestation?

Description: The aim of the project is to consider the relation between two great philosophical traditions: idealism and pragmatism. The network will focus on three main themes through a series of workshops and a final conference:

- 2013 Workshop on the history of the relation between idealism and pragmatism
- 2014 Workshop exploring connections in metaphysics, epistemology, logic and language
- 2015 Workshop exploring connections in ethics, social thought, and religion
- 2015 Final conference
