

News item. Retrieved from <http://www.commens.org/news/item/notice-concerning-problems-account-activation>, 02.04.2025.

Category: Commens

Title: Notice concerning problems with account activation

Description: Recently registered Commens accounts have been afflicted with a system error that may have crippled the activation process. The problem has now been fixed. If you have not been able to activate your account as expected, please request a new password by clicking the 'Forgot your password?' link after opening the login form (top right).